A 19th century French Louis XVI–Style Painted and Parcel-Gilt Trumeau Mirror

An elegant architectural trumeau mirror in subtle gray-green and gilt tones, surmounted by a projecting cornice and centered by a pastoral painting depicting a shepherdess and seated companion in a wooded landscape. Ribbon-tied foliate pendants flank the composition, while a flaming classical vessel, beaded moldings, and a decorative trophy enrich the symmetrical Neoclassical surround. A rectangular mirror plate completes the lower register.
